

Boston

home

KITCHENS 2014

JEWEL TONES
dazzle in a
BROOKLINE VICTORIAN

SUNSETS and
OCEAN VIEWS
meet minimalism
on MARTHA'S VINEYARD

PLUS:
inside the country's first
TRAPPIST BREWERY

BOSTONMAGAZINE.COM $4.99
FALL 2014 (DISPLAY UNTIL 11/24/14)

Boston

Kitchens 2014: Get Cooking

Thinking about reimagining your kitchen? Take inspiration from these four local cooking spaces, elegantly outfitted with cobalt-blue appliances, sparkling sea-glass tile, sumptuous wood, and other unique features.

Location Manchester-by-the-Sea

Interior Designer Kristina Crestin Design

Kitchen Designer and Builder David McWilliam, McWilliam Woodworking

Architect Olson + Lewis Architects

Contractor Anderson Contracting Services

Cabinet Color Pavement, C2 Paint.

Countertops Soapstone, Athena Marble and Granite.

Barstools Evan counter stools, Robert Allen.

Range Wolf 48-inch gas, Tri City Sales.

Backsplash Oceanside glass tile, the Tile Source.

Paint White Dove, Benjamin Moore.

Sconces E. F. Chapman "Boston Functional Library" lights, Visual Comfort & Co.

Refrigerator Sub-Zero 48-inch, Tri City Sales.

Crestin created a kitchen large enough to accommodate the whole family: on one side, plenty of room for prepping and cooking, and on the other, a space generous enough for the kids to spread out their homework and projects.

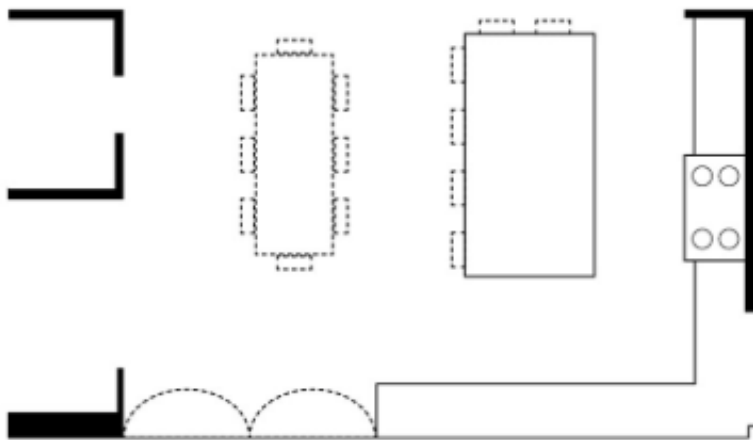

The homeowner was wary of bold colors, Crestin says. Subtle blue sea-glass tile was the perfect compromise—muted and soothing, it has an iridescent shine.

To add interest to the Restoration Hardware pendant lights above the kitchen island, the homeowner painted the inside of the shades a robin's-egg blue.

One of Crestin's design challenges was working with the kitchen's expansive floor plan. A custom-made table filled the space, but it took several shopping trips to find a supplier that offered soapstone slabs large enough for the counters.